STAKEHOLDER EQUITY LISTENING SESSION

The Washington State Department of Transportation, in coordination with the Washington State Office of Equity, is conducting an Equity Baseline Assessment. This assessment will help WSDOT and the state identify actions and policy and procedure revisions that are needed to ensure our work bridges opportunity gaps and reduces disparities to create equitable and just outcomes for everyone in Washington.

WSDOT is hosting virtual listening sessions to hear feedback on what we can do to be more equitable. The information taken from these meetings will help WSDOT and the Office of Equity:

- Develop the state's 5-year equity plan
- Enhance language access implementation
- Remove barriers to accessing services
- Decrease inequities and disparities
- Assist WSDOT in developing its Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion work plan
- Promote systemic and cultural changes by introducing best practices and change management
- Design an online performance dashboard that measures progress toward equity goals

WSDOT has three stakeholder listening sessions available:

- 1 – 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 29
- 8 – 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 30
- 5 – 6:30 p.m., Thursday, July 1
